APPOMATTOX, VIRGINIA

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1943

ESTABLISHED 1885

41 Entered Service During December

Clear as the Crystal Ball?

Forty-one men from Appomattox County entered the armed forces during the month of December. The present schedule calls for thirty-seven men as the quota for January. Ten white men leave January 1st for examination at Richmond; twelve white men leave January 12th for examination at Richmond; fifteen colored men leave January 19th for examination at Charlottesville.

Thus far, thirty-six men just become eighteen years of age have registered in the county. Regulations require men between 18 and 21 to register with their local board on the 18th birthday.

Chest Clinic
Is Planned
This Month

The Appomattox County Tuberculosis Association will sponsor a Chest X-ray Clinic here at the high school auditorium on January 18th. The x-rays will be made by the Powers X-ray Company of Glenview, New York. This company was highly recommended by the Virginia State Board of Health and is highly recommended by the large group attending at one time that any one who wishes may be x-rayed for one dollar. No doctor's certificate is required.
